

iEARN Conference 2004
Košice, Slovakia

March 28, 2004

To whom it may concern-

The Steering Committee of the 11th Annual International Education and Resource Network (iEARN) Teacher's Conference and Youth Summit wishes to introduce to you Mr. Narayan Solanke, who is to be formally invited by this committee to attend our annual conference, this year to be held in Kosice, Slovakia from July 11-17, 2004.

Mr. Solanke is a valued asset to our organization that extends its reach around the world through the efforts of its country coordinators and teachers, promoting ICT in Education, enabling teachers and students to network and engage in collaborative cross-cultural educational projects, and to empower youth to make a difference in our world.

Mr. Solanke is invited to hold a 45 minutes presentation on rural development at our conference. Title of the presentation is Village - Appelas for Whiz age.

Our most sincere regards-

The 2004 iEARN Conference Steering Committee
