we welcome you as a member of FIAN International. Becoming a FIAN member means that you are part of a movement to ensure that everyone around the world can realize their human right to adequate food.

As an international human rights organization, FIAN has been advocating for the right to food for more than 20 years. In light of the current world food crisis, the need to address the root causes of hunger is more urgent than ever before. FIAN's work to promote the right to food is possible through the valuable support of members like you.

With your support, FIAN International:

- Takes action and intervenes in concrete situations of human rights violations through its Urgent Actions.
- Documents the results of research and analysis in a whole range of publications accessible to all at www.fian.org.
- Puts public pressure on policy makers to fulfil their human rights obligations and creates awareness about right to food violations. Visit our ongoing campaign at www.face-it-act-now.org

As a member you will receive all our urgent actions; you will regularly receive the latest news, and the FIAN e-bulletin, updating you about FIAN's work around the globe. Please make sure you keep us updated on any change in your postal address and email.

We kindly request that you pay your annual membership fee via the PayPal Function on <http://www.fian.org/get-involvedbecome-a-member> or that you transfer the money directly to our bank account. Please pay as much as you can, according to your financial situation. If you encounter difficulties when making your contribution, please contact us by mail, e-mail, or phone so that we can assist you.

Welcome again and thank you for your decision to become a member of FIAN International.

Sincerely,

Flavio Valente
 Secretary General
