Dear Mr. Solanke:

On behalf of the Center for Stabilization and Reconstruction Studies (CSRS), at the Naval Postgraduate School (NPS), I am pleased to accept your application to participate in "Building Capacities for Cross-Cultural Communication" a short course that will focus on how to work with cultural differences in volatile social contexts. The course will be held August 15 - 19, 2010, at the National Conference Center, 18980 Upper Belmont Place Leesburg, VA 20176-1245. Participants will lodge and dine at this location.

This course is an official US Government activity and I am delighted to invite you to participate, as I believe that you will add significantly to the quality and overall success of the event. We have a great group of confirmed participants and I am sure that your work with the Universal Versatile Society in India will be of great interest to them.

As you know, you will be responsible for your travel and incidental expenses. Accommodation expenses, meals and the workshop itself are offered free of charge.

Please bring this letter of invitation with you as support for your visa application.

For the U.S. Embassy personnel considering this visa request:

Mr. Solanke is an invited participant of our program, and we request that you expedite processing of his visa application. There is no tuition charge for the conference, and CSRS will cover his accommodation and meal expenses.

Please let me know if there is anything else that I can provide in support of this request.

I look forward to hearing from you in this regard. Please do not hesitate to contact me at rmjohnso@nps.edu or +1 (831) 656-1811, with any further questions.
