Dear Mr. Narayan Solanke,

Congratulations! I am glad to inform you that you have been selected to participate in the TechCamp Mumbai.

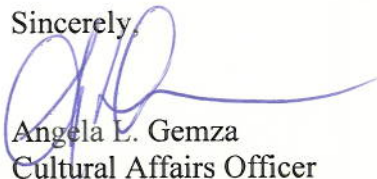

On behalf of Consul General Peter Haas and the U.S. Consulate General, I look forward to welcoming you to TechCamp Mumbai. TechCamp Mumbai is a South Asian regional conference organized by us, in conjunction with the Global India Fund and Samhita, from February 19-21, 2013. TechCamp Mumbai is part of Secretary Clinton's Civil Society 2.0 initiative – an effort to connect civil society organizers with the technology community to help increase their capacity and outreach potential in the 21st century.

TechCamp Mumbai will be held at the Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel, Powai from February 19 -21. You should plan to arrive in Mumbai the morning of Tuesday, February 19 for registration and the evening opening reception. TechCamp Mumbai begins in earnest the morning of February 20 and the camp will be a two-day, hands-on event that will allow you to interact with top technologists through a series of training sessions focused on empowering youth in South Asia. TechCamp Mumbai ends late in the afternoon on February 21 before your departure that evening.

Your travel and lodging expenses for the night of February 19 and 20, for TechCamp Mumbai, will be borne by the U.S. Department of State. Meals will also be included. Our TechCamp organizer, Samhita, will be in touch with you shortly to arrange your travel logistics. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact Ms. Abha Rai at +91-88795-34777 or email: techcampmumbai@samhita.org.

In the meantime, I invite you to join TechCamp Mumbai's Facebook group to start the networking and discussion at: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/305564296226299/?fref=ts>. If you are on Twitter, our hashtag is #techcampmumbai.

We are looking forward to your participation in TechCamp Mumbai!

Sincerely,

Angela E. Gemza
Cultural Affairs Officer
